CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

"The Church of Friendship."

Two good audiences welcomed the new pastor on last Sunday. Let every member make it a rule to be present at every service, unless providentially hindered. The pastor, J. D. Braine will be located at the home of Miss Conley on Lock avenue. You can find him at the church each morning between 8:30 and 11 a. m. The next two weeks will be spent in effort to organize our forces. Let everyone pull together. We invite every person not attending services elsewhere to come and take part with us. The Bible is our only creed. Below are the announcements for the week.

Every church in this town is worthy of your support. We are all serving the same God. Worship in the one in which you feel most at home. Try our welcome.

Our Sunday School is worth while. We have good corps of teachers and classes for all ages and a good attendance. We, of course, have room for many more and all who care to come are here and been attending. Our school your presence will be appreciated and you will receive a hearty welcome.

Dr. Jernigan, our pastor, has been doing good work since he has been among us. He believes in visiting the sick and has thus far made many personal visits. He has been preaching special services full of gospel truth, as well as by the power of the Holy Spirit.

We are having good sized audiences at these services but we have a large auditorium and have room for more. We have comfortable pews and good chairs, splendid congregational song, a good place to stand on either side of the altar and if you are not accustomed to attending church, come on with your friends. At least one of your family should be present each Sunday with you as a gift to your soul and the only gift that counts.

Each Sunday we have two special services. One at 10:30 a. m. and the other at 7 p. m. The 10:30 service is for the young people and the 7 p. m. service is for the family. Both are well attended and we hope to see you there.

For this special service, please be present at the 10:30 service.
